PROJECT
GIGANTIC.To Exploit Mexican Resources.New Company Will Take Over Interests Controlled
by Col. Greene.Work on Plans of Financier
Will Begin at Once,
He Says.Will Open the Immense Coal and Iron Fields of Montclove.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

E PASO (Tex.) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With a capital of $60,000,000, the Mexico and Northwestern Railroad Company of Canada has been organized to take over all the mining, lumber and railroad interests in Mexico which have been controlled by Col. W. C. Greene, according to a statement which he made today.

The gigantic plans of Col. Greene for the development of Mexico before the financial depression will now be carried on by the new company. They include a large lumber mill with a daily capacity of 175,000 feet. In El Paso, the construction of a railroad which will give El Paso direct connection with Guaymas, and another road which will run almost directly to the coal fields of Montclove.

IMMENSE COAL FIELDS.

The Pacific Coast line, it is said, will open up an immense coal field in Sonora, said to be three times as large as the combined coal fields of West Virginia and Pennsylvania. This line it is also stated, will tap an extensive iron deposit.

The promotion of the new company has been conducted by Dr. F. S. Pearson of New York and Toronto, who also promoted a electric water power company near Mexico City, the Mexico City railways and tramway company in Puebla.

Col. Greene says, has issued $1,000,000 in bonds for carrying out immediate work and these have been sold in Glasgow, Scotland.

SURVEYS MADE.

An option is held on the Chihuahua and Pacific Railroad, and this will be connected with the Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific for the outlet into El Paso, or another line will be built to an outlet to the west to be secured by buying the Santa Fe's station on the Sierra Madre and Pacific over the mountains to Tonchic, the Yaqui River road which will give direct connection with the Pacific.

Surveys already made, connect the railroad with the Franklin Murphy timber tract, and that of Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, of the British navy.

It is proposed to ship coal to El Paso to be utilized for mining industries in the States, while the Madera mills will be operated in supplying the export trade which can be handled from Guaymas.

LIST OF DIRECTORS.

Col. Greene says the directors of the new company are: Mr. J. Van Horne, president of the Canadian Pacific Service; F. M. Kelley, formerly vice-president of the Santa Fe; E. N. Brown, president of the National Railways of Mexico; R. C. Brown, president of Mexico Tramways Company; José Llanera, Minister of Finance of Chihuahua; G. Landia y Escandon, of the Federal district of Mexico; H. Hubbard, London; W. T. Eldridge, F. Pearson, New York; D. H. Miller, former vice-president of the Santa Fe; H. M. Smith, London; Miller, Pearson & Co.; Walter Coe, a director in Rio Janeiro; Edward R. Wood, director in the Bank of Commerce of Toronto.

Active operations will be in progress by July 1, and the lumber mill will be completed and operated here by the end of the year.

LAST SPIKE DRIVEN.

Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound Road Completed Except for Finishing Touches.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT

MISSOULA (Mont.) March 29.—Marking the completion of two lines of steel connecting Chicago and Seattle, the last spike in the new transcontinental railroad, the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound road, was driven at 6 o'clock this evening, one thousand-quarters mile east of Missoula.

There was a golden spike ceremony. Besides the crew of the track laying outfit, there were present at the conclusion of the work only Chief Engineer, David L. Balfour, and his wife, Mrs. Balfour, and Mr. Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary.

The motion was proposed by Arthur Hamilton Lee, Conservative member of Parliament, and the opinion of His Majesty's government respecting the immediate provision for battleship of the newest type, does not sufficiently secure the safety of the empire."

It is well known that Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, reproached his opponents for making a party question of the most vital matter of the country's foreign relations.

Secretary Grey's speech was by far the most notable of the debate, by reason of his candor. He dwelt on the political aspects of the British-German war, and the hopelessness of expecting any cessation of the race in armament, and he predicted eventual European bankruptcy if continued.

After his exposition, the government, and the speeches from the opposition benches seemed half-hearted.

ASYLUM FOR PACKER'S SON.

Herbert L. Swift Declared of Unsound Mind.

His Condition Due to Craze for Beer and Gin.

Is Suffering from Incipient Hallucinations.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, March 29.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Herbert L. Swift, son of the late Gustavus F. Swift, meat packer, who left an estate of many millions, has been declared of unsound mind and is at present in a sanatorium at Kenilworth, a suburb of Chicago. His condition is ascribed by physicians to an uncontrollable appetite for whisky, beer and gin.

Although the condition of mental derangement was made known by a commission of physicians three weeks ago, the matter did not become public until today. The files had been locked in a drawer without the knowledge or sanction of County Judge Rinaker.

The verdict of the commission of physicians on which the findings of record were based reads:

"That suffering from impaired memory, of the nature of transient hallucinations and delusions and has threatened violence. He has thickened and stammered of speech."

L. F. Swift, brother of the sufferer, in a statement to the commission, stated the nature of the threat. According to him the young man, who is 22 years old, threatened to kill himself and other members of his family.

In his verdict the commission recommended the appointment of a conservator to look after the property of the minor.

Mr. Swift has an annuity of $600 left to him by his father and the will provided that at the end of four years young Swift was to come into possession of $1,000,000. He is married and has no children.

GRAFT PROSECUTION FILLS THREE COURTS.

Score of Attorneys and a Flying Squadron of Detectives and Newspaper Men Flit from One Tribunal to Another as Calhoun Case Develops.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—In suits connected with the long-drawn-out trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the Union Pacific Railroad, during the contention and energies of three legal tribunals, a score of attorneys, and an undetermined flying squadron of detectives, newspaper men and photographers today.

Interest first centered in one of the palis courts, where nine defendants, all of whom are alleged to have worked for Calhoun secretly in the interests of the United Railroads, appeared for arraignment upon charges of having obstructed or received payoffs from the office of Dist.-Atty. William H. Landge. There was a hearing later upon an injunction issued by Superior Judge Frank J. Murphy, and just before the trial was begun, the court was adjourned for the day, George G. Gilligan, a contractor, was passed to occupy the twelfth seat in the jury box, making it probable that peremptory challenges will be exercised tomorrow for the second time since the trial was begun, eleven weeks ago.

While both sides were eager to come to conclusions the various parties concerned could not agree upon the method of procedure, and the police court proceedings were continued until Wednesday.

CALIF. HANLEY: "LYING DOG."

The injunction hearing was prolonged until A. A. Moore, attorney for the United Railroads, had called Assistant Dist.-Atty. Hanley a "lying dog," and the court ordered the case continued until tomorrow, because the agents of the prosecution would not admit service of the order restraining them from the premises of the United Railroads, and destroying the property of the corporation.

Interest was added to the whole affair when it was known that the cause that Judge William P. Lawlor, who is presiding over the Calhoun trial, had issued an order citing an unnamed defendant to appear before him tomorrow and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. Although the identity of the alleged culprit was not disclosed, it was known that the man, who also was in custody, had been improperly addressed one of the jurors passed temporarily last week.

The order to show cause was issued after the juror in question, and others, had signed affidavits setting forth the facts.

As outlined by Attorney Moore during a special injunction hearing today, the attorneys and others arrested in connection with the alleged theft of papers will contend that the order of Judge Murasky was deliberately violated by the court, and that the court was acting under the orders of Asst. Dist.-Atty. Hanley.

Mr. Moore declared to the court that the original order had been issued to the court, and the representative of the prosecution while safes were being drilled and cabinets forced in the offices of the United Railroads, but that Mr. Hanley, after deciding the case was drawn, ordered the search to proceed.

STORMY COURT SCENE.

When the session of court opened Mr. Moore notified the court that he had served the original injunction upon an agent of the police who was then in possession of one of the railroad offices, and upon Mr. Hanley, who was serving it to Moore. "Had no business there whatever, but who told me he would take a chance on anything."

Mr. Moore then went on to say that, in his opinion, the agents of the District Attorney had acted in direct violation of the injunction, and were, therefore, in contempt of court. Judge Murasky, however, said he had been advised by the District Attorney's office, and Asst. Dist.-Atty. Harrison said as there had been no return of service

NOTABLE NAVAL CAREER ENDS.
Rear-Admiral Converse Dies in Washington After Life of Active Service.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, March 29.—Rear-Admiral George A. Converse died at his home tonight of uric acid poisoning. Although placed on the retired list several years ago, he was in active service at the time of his death, being president of the board of construction of the navy.

It was under him as chief of the Bureau of Navigation that the battleship fleet of sixteen vessels, which recently circled the globe, was assembled. His service to the navy was largely identified with torpedo and torpedo destroyers. He was inspector of ordnance at the naval port of New York, N. Y., when smokeless powder was introduced into the navy.

A prominent naval officer today declared that his influence in the navy had been far-reaching and that his career was in some ways without parallel. He had served as head of three important bureaus.

Admiral Converse was born in Norwich, Vt., in 1844, graduated at Annapolis in 1865, at the head of his class. During the Spanish-American War he commanded the first-class battleship Illinois.

Although the details of Converse's death were made known by a commission of physicians three weeks ago, the matter did not become public until today. The files had been locked in a drawer without the knowledge or sanction of County Judge Rinaker.

LOS ANGELES JOBERS TESTIFY.
DISCOURSES OF PRACTICE REPORT.

RENO (Nev.), March 29.—The hearing of the Nevada Railroad Commission against the Southern Pacific and the Nevada, California and Oregon Railroad, alleging discriminatory and unjust rates, was begun today before Special Examiner Lyon of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Attorney Sam. Mano of the traffic bureau of the Merchants Exchange of San Francisco, appeared before Examiner Lyon and offered a petition of disqualification, which was presented.

This petition set forth that San Francisco enjoyed water competition, and that it should continue to have such, and that the city of Reno also had the benefit of water competition on the Pacific Coast, and therefore the rates charged the city of Reno and the surrounding areas were not unjust or discriminatory.

It is prayed that the Nevada Railroad Commission be ruled against Attorney Mano.

Attorney Edward C. Kuster, representing the Associated Jobbers of Los Angeles, appeared with a petition presenting nearly the same position as the San Francisco representatives.

Special Examiner Lyon, the attorney for the Southern Pacific, and Atty.-Gen. Stoddard, on behalf of the railroad, presented their respective tables of rates and other exhibits and continue the case until tomorrow.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) LONDON, March 29.—A dispatch to the Standard from Horta says that when the Hamburg arrived it was learned that an attempt had been made aboard to attack Mr. Roosevelt, but that it was frustrated, and his would-be assailant placed in irons.

The incident occurred soon after the trial began.

WASHINGTON.
NO DEMOCRATS CAN COME IN.

Minority Is Not Needed on Sub-Committees.

Senator's Frank Statement Brings a Laugh.

Elkins Takes Sides With His Political Foes.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT)

WASHINGTON. March 29.—Objection was made in the Senate today to a statement by Mr. Hale that the Finance Committee was holding daily sessions on the tariff bill. The criticism came from Senator Bacon, who said "it is to the fact that the Democratic members of the committee were excluded."

"Perhaps I should have said sub-committee," explained Mr. Hale.

"It is not usual to give the minority representation on sub-committees," asked Mr. Bacon.

"Not on tariff matter," replied Mr. Hale, which rejoined provoked general laughter.

Hale said what was being done now by the Republicans was not only customary, and that the Democrats a number of years ago had resorted to the same practice. Senators Money, Culberson and Newlands protested against the exclusion of the minority.

ELKINS STORMS.

Joining with the Democrats in their protest against the manner in which the tariff bill is being managed, Senator Elkins, Republican, of West Virginia declared himself and his State to be of the South, the interests of which he was being crucified.

He declared he had been unable to get a hearing unless he would agree to come in "under the yoke."

Mr. Elkins reflected the fact that the Democrats in the House had had no opportunity to criticize the tariff bill before it was reported. Exception was taken by Mr. Gore, and in a rare speech, he declared that the bill had been given fourteen minutes in which to examine the bill before voting on it in committee.

GRILLS NEW ENGLAND.

Continuing his remarks, Mr. Elkins made no secret of the fact that he was disappointed in the way the Senate Committee had handled the bill, and he wanted to get on so as to protest against the continuance of high duties for New England and low duties for the southern products.

In an exceedingly facetious burst of eloquence, Mr. Elkins grilled the New England "domination" of the Senate.

Speaking of the appointments of John Lodge, MacCloskey, Sargent and Flint as new members of the Finance Committee, Mr. Elkins said they had been chosen of sections as far away from the source as possible.

Speaking of the appointment of New England Senators in the Senate, Mr. Elkins said that he had seen to it that the same influence was maintained in the Finance Committee.

PENSIONS AND MEDALS.

EXTENDING PRIVILEGES.

WASHINGTON. March 29.—Representative Nichols of Pennsylvania is of the opinion that persons who were engaged in the construction of military railroads during the Civil War should receive pensions, and has introduced a bill extending pension privileges to them. The Secretary is also authorized to issue 2 per cent. coupon or registered United States bonds redeemable ten years from date, and payable thirty years from date. The bonds will be exempt from all taxes.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

RUSTY GOOD SECURITY.

WASHINGTON. March 29.—Senator Nelson finds himself unable to find any good reason why real estate may not be made the basis of loans made by national banks. He has been told by other institutions, and has introduced a bill authorizing such banks to let out a limited amount of their funds upon such security when the property is well-located, occupied and cultivated farms.

President Taft Anti-Tariff Man When It Comes to Women's Hosiery.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
WASHINGTON. March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Taft has come out against high tariff on women's stockings and gloves. He also wants other necessities of life, like lumber, shoes, coffee, tea, oil and woolen goods put on the free list or placed under much lower duties than are contemplated by the Payne bill.

A good many millions of revenue would be lost by such a course, but the President would rather have the deficit made up some other way. Just how this might best be done is not able definitely to decide as yet, but he is giving the matter much thought.

HOLDS CONFERENCE WITH HALE ON TARIFF BILL.

Mr. Taft Lets It Be Understood That He Favors Reduction in Duties Imposed by Measure on Necessities of Life and Is Opposed to the Tax on Tea.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT)

WASHINGTON. March 29.—President Taft talked tariff today with Senator Hale, Representatives Dallas of Pennsylvania and Hinshaw of Nebraska, and John Barrett, director of the Bureau of American Republics. It was agreed that the President is less inclined to support the administration's proposed reduction of the tariff on all necessities of life.

The Payne bill repeatedly has been attacked in the House debate as imposing too heavy a burden upon the poor and as favoring the richer classes. The import duty on sugar, tobacco, and for a duty on coal. The Democrat said he had characterized the bill as iniquitous, but while there were some of the features not entirely to his liking, he did not condemn it as a whole.

DISPUTED FACTS.

It would be, he declared, an interesting contribution to the political literature in the nation to have printed "deadly parallel columns," exactly as submitted for the Payne bill. Mr. Cushman's defense of the administration's position was that they were far better today than they were under Democratic rule was disputed by Mr. Weiss of Wisconsin.

Mr. Weiss declared that within eighteen months 40 per cent of the laboring men of the country had been out of work, and that there had been an increase in the cost of living of $88,000,000 in the last two years.

Mr. Cushman received voracious applause when he said:

"The Indians have traveled a mighty distance since you and your party were in," addressing himself to Mr. Wilson of Pennsylvania who had been critical of the Indian's conduct.

President Taft, it is said, believes the system of taxation to be adopted to meet the growing deficiency in the treasury should be calculated to cause the least friction. It is for this reason that he strongly favors the inheritance tax.

President Taft has let it be known that he approves the Payne bill in principle, and that he believes more schedules in the Democratic tariff will be imposed if the bill is not passed.

Mr. Cushman declared free coal was not a Republican doctrine. He quoted from some remarks made by Mr. Payne when a bill was up providing for free coal, and said it did not lie with Mr. Payne to say that it was because he said, "when I raised my voice today for a tariff on coal I am preaching the doctrine which he himself taught me." Mr. Cushman repeated that the measure in the bill of free coal and a tariff on coal would not be popular.

President Taft is said, intends to have all legislative matters to Congress and the public to discuss the body what it shall do. At the same time he takes advantage of the calls by Senators and Representatives to state its response to their requests for information on his behalf.

MARY FARMER PAYS PENALTY.

She Walks to Death Chamber Clasping Crucifix.

Worshipers Prayer for Soul as End Comes.

Two Women Witness Details of Execution.

Associated Press Night Report.

AUBURN, March 29.—Murmuring a prayer for her soul, Mrs. Mary Farmer was quietly led to the electric chair at Auburn prison shortly after 6 o'clock this morning and executed for the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan at Roseville last April.

The execution of Mrs. Farmer—the first infliction of the death penalty by electrocution in this state—was effected without sensational incidents. Five women, two of whom were prison attendants, were present. Father Hickey, spiritual father of the condemned woman, followed the execution, gave out a statement, and then left. Father Hickey, which he said that her husband, James Farmer, was entirely innocent and nothing of the crime until it had been committed.

Farmer walked unflinchingly to the death chair, her eyes half-closed and clasped a crucifix in her hands.

At 6:15 a.m., when the Rev. Father Hickey stood at her side and recited prayers for the dying.

FIRST SHOCK KILLS.

In John Gerin, the prison physician, it was known that the woman was dead after the first shock, but as there was still a trace of muscles, two succeeding shocks were given. Electrician Mix said that 1,600 volts and 76 amperes was the strength of the current passed through the woman's body.

After Warden Benham announced the execution, the Rev. Dr. Charles Spitzka of Philadelphia and Dr. Charles Lambert of the Pathological Society at New York Island, N. Y., performed an autopsy.

All night long the writhing woman lay within her cell on the second floor of the women's department in the condemned row, after having been separated from her husband. Separated by jail bars and an intervening screen, husband and wife spent their final hours together in quiet conversation.

The word spread that the husband, the working husband, remained to his cell, and the hapless man lay down the narrow corridor outside this morning. Father Hickey recited the rosary at 6:15 a.m. over the woman and priest lay together, the last sacrament administered and Mrs. Farmer and her husband were not afraid to die.

Both men were dressed in a plain waist and skirt. Her hair was washed back from her forehead and tied in two braids. Two or three locks of hair fell over the shoulders.

The electric might be properly applied and the warden attendants slit the side of the skirt as far as the stockings.

WOMEN WITNESSES.

Two women, admitted to the same room, were the three women witnesses that H. M. Westfall of Moravia, N. J., Miss Margaret T. Byrne of Newark, Miss Alice Baird and Miss Byrne of Newark. When the doors were formed in line and the being cautioned against any conversation, led into the death chamber.

Electrician Davis tested the fuses and wires leading to the switch and the curtain. Everything was found to be in working order. Warden Benham and Capt. Patterson stepped over the threshold and stood door the door caused by some one within, Mr. Farmer was led in.

It might have been only a few seconds before the straps were adjusted, and then an interminable wait.

The two women attendants stood by the wall and the two men who witnessed her to the chair.

He bound her to the chair, and the voltage starting at 1,640, and gradually lowered to 200, then again to the full limit of 1,640 and the current was applied at 6.65.

He remained in his cell for a long time after the execution. He had told him he had to die at dawn and that she made a statement that he was the man of the crime.

The man was taken to the prison gate, and the official gave him a kiss.

LINE THEM UP FOR OPENING.

Coast League Baseball Race to Open Today.

Parade and Jollification to Precede Game.

Berry Handing Out Passes to Auto Cargoes.

The betting order of the Los Angeles and Portland teams for the opening of the league season today is:
Los Angeles. Portland.
Daley, cf. Ryan, cf.
Godwin, lf. Olson, ss.
Dillon, lb. Ort, lf.
Howard, 2b. McCredie, rf.
Smith, 3b. Johnson, sb.
Palms, as. Kennedy, 1b.
Thorne, r. Morris, c.
Overend, 4b. Murray, o.
Hosp, p. Graney, p.

President Ben Berry of the Los Angeles baseball man is wondering why the Recall Committee didn't have foresight enough to select a candidate for Mayor who could pitch at least one ball in the great national game.

Major Stephens can't even throw a ball from the box to the plate, and Mayor-elect Alexander grows on a bristling board on his lower testis as a reporter that he is afraid McCredie will pick him for the Angels' bat.

The predicament "almost necessitated a postponement of the opening of the Pacific Coast League ball season at Chutes Park," the attorney, but President Berry has decided to chance Alexander, and he is to pitch the first half.

Formerly the Mayor of Vernon has consented to back up the plate, and the grand stand is insured from a passed ball. The Mayor of Watts will decide on the official course of action.

All these probabilities may be delayed by the uncertain weather, but only a heavy downpour will prevent the playing of the game as scheduled.

MAYOR FEAT'ERS.

Aside from the "moral" feature of the opening, Ben has planned a down-to-earth celebration just prior to the game, which promises to eclipse any previous demonstration of the kind and further to give the team a send-off that ought to bring the pennant again to Berry's private office.

If it rains, the parade will be headed by a crane hand, but the interesting part of the performance is the handing of free passes promised by Ben. The only person who rides in an automobile in the line of march follows the players' machines, Berry will give free a ticket to today's game. There is no limit to the number of passes, Ben says, and if every auto in the county has a load and each machine is loaded with all the local dignitaries on it, Ben will hold the promise of free tickets held good.

The parade is to form at the City Hall, go down Main Street, and pass south on Broadway to Second, and pass south on Broadway to Second, and the manager-captain of the Webfoot team entertains a personal opinion that his team is the best bunch of players Portland has ever sent into the league and that like Hogan he wants them to win Coast honors, but holds a diverse opinion from Hogan in believing Portland will head the percentage column, and that the other teams, while the perhaps bunch will be the crack.

HEAD IN WRAPS.

Los Angeles has displayed much class in the recent series with the Sox, and although the scores were erratic, Ben offered the information that the team set out its real ability only on the last two games, and that Frank Dillon to reserve a good portion of the surprises for the league race.

McCredie has brought down some new players who are expected to show the Angels more class in the future in baseball. Ort, left fielder, McCredie believes is the find of the year, and he is said to possess real class. Carson is another find, one who is counted on to help win the race. The other members of the bunch will be on the diamond today.

Hosp and either Graney or Harkness will be the opening pitchers today, and in the trial the fans will probably the best twirlers of the two teams. Hosp is working in good form at present, and held down the Sox in the closing game in style.

Fifth and Ninth Innings Prove Disastrous for Berkleyites—Workman and Gerald King Hit the Ball Hard and French Pitches a Great Game Throughout.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES

BERKELEY, March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] St. Vincent's, 7; California Varsity, 1. The St. Vincent's team had everything its own way in the ninth inning of the series with California. Two hits of Christen and four errors by the Varsity at critical moments tell the tale. French was in great form, allowing but three hits and fanning seven.

St. Vincent's scored in the first inning, when Workman hit his second ball to third on a fielder's choice, and scored on an error by Smith.

In the fifth, French got to first on Arthur's muff of his drive. He went to second on Workman's hit, took third on a wild pitch, and scored when Dillon, in center, let Kennedy's hit ball bounce over the fence. Kennedy scored on the same error. West scored in the sixth, after reaching first on a muff, and came home in on Dillon's single.

The parade is to form at the City Hall, go down Main Street, and pass south on Broadway to Second, and the manager-captain of the Webfoot team entertains a personal opinion that his team is the best bunch of players Portland has ever sent into the league and that like Hogan he wants them to win Coast honors, but holds a diverse opinion from Hogan in believing Portland will head the percentage column, and that the other teams, while the perhaps bunch will be the crack.

WISE TALKS

By the "Office Boy"

A lady said to me one day, "Do you think the men like those clinging gowns?" I said, "I thought it depended on good deal on what the gown were clinging to. There was time when a man who wore a ready-to-wear suit of clothing was looked down upon by the women who patronized tailors. Ready-to-wear clothes were called "hand-me-downs." Only the very poor boys bought them. Now things have been reversed and tailors make the hand-me-downs. There are probably 50 tailor shops in town that advertise to make suits from $15 to $25, and every man who wears one is looked down upon by the well-dressed men who wear the better class of ready-to-wear clothing. Take our Ready and Right suits. There is a style, a snap and a swing about them that the ordinary merchant can or cannot give. Then there is a display of good tailoring and an absolute all-woolness in every garment that will make it give you the best of good service through long and constant use. Yes, we are very proud of these good clothes of ours, and we want you to them. Come in today. Try on some garments. It costs you nothing, and we like to see them. The charges in price are $15, $20, $22.50 and $25, and a few as high as $25, on sale at our Broadway and 5th street corner.

There were 160 passengers on the Chamber of Commerce's special train, which left Arcadia station at 8:30 o'clock last night for the Imperial Valley. Secretary Wiggin stated that there was a number of delayed requests for accommodations which could not be granted. It is planned to send an excursion party into a portion of the same territory soon.

The train consisted of six sleepers, two dining cars, a compartment car, a day coach and two engines. In the dining car home products were served.

In addition to President Wiggin and Secretary Wiggin, the following members of the chamber helped to look after the comfort of the passengers: G. Johnson, Louis Blankenhorn, C. H. Lippsing, A. J. Seymore, Seymour Swartz, W. H. Weiswender and M. A. Baker.

The special is due at Calexico at 8 o'clock tomorrow. Yuma and the Laguna will be visited tomorrow, and the travelers will be at home again on Thursday morning.

JAPAN OPPOSES ARBITRATION.

Difficulties With China Regarding Manchuria Will Be Thrashed Out
by Diplomacy Only.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]
TOKIO (Japan) March 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] America's reported support of China's proposal to submit the Chinese-Japanese Manchurian differences to the Hague tribunal is not believed in Japan, where the deterrent effect of the arbitration of the house-tax dispute is still felt.

The fact that the Tacumon Railway difficulty, which is one among several troubles arising out of the Tacumon construction, has been submitted to arbitration, according to the Tokio authorities, inasmuch as ample room exists for an amicable settlement through the continuation of negotiations.

Japan, it is declared, always is prepared to settle differences in the most conciliatory way, but the Chinese claimants do not warrant recourse to arbitration, according to the Tokio authorities, inasmuch as ample room exists for an amicable settlement through the continuation of negotiations.

The authorities further say that these conditions and the fact that the Chinese are asking for arbitration erroneously believing it to be safest to delay a settlement in Manchuria.

BLOW KILLS FAVETTO.

Assassin in San Pedro Eight Dies and Man He Attacked is Held on Charge of Murder.

SAN PEDRO, March 29.—A heavy blow on the left side of the head, struck by Joe Barca, prominent in the local Italian colony here, caused the death of Frank Favetto, another Italian, last night.

Favetto had been drinking heavily during the afternoon, and was quarreling. About 7 o'clock he became involved in a discussion with S. Strova, who owns a fruit store on Sixth street, and Barca attempted to pacify Favetto. He accused Barca of being a member of the Black Hand Society and struck him a blow on the nose, and retaliated by striking Favetto a heavy blow on the right ear. Favetto fell and hit the curb with great force. When assistance reached him he was unconscious and was worked over for two hours and about 16 o'clock he recovered consciousness, and was supposed to be out of danger. Shortly before he again became unconscious and died in five minutes.

The tragedy was witnessed by Favetto's little daughter, Josephine, a young Egyptian, who was a strong rightist that the dead man was the aggressor, and that Barca acted in self-defense. Barca did everything possible to pacify his opponent after the fatal blow had been struck.

Favetto resided on Second street, and leaves a widow and three children. He formerly conducted a restaurant at Wilshire and 21st street, and was in custody this morning. He has resided here for over twenty years, and owns considerable property. He was never in trouble before, but had a quarrel with him on account of the tragic end to last night's encounter. A charge of murder was placed against Barca, and he was taken to the County jail.

WHICH DOES MOST FOR US?

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OR THE Y.M.C.A.?

Question Debated Last Night by President and Ex-President, With Representatives of the Five Thousand Club—Campaign to Open With Great Vigor April First.

In connection with the 5000 membership campaign at the Young Men's Christian Association, a debate was held last night, the subject of which was "Which does most for us?" The Young Men's Christian Association, president W. H. Booth and ex-president George H. Stewart, appearing for the Chamber of Commerce, and Frank F. Pratt and J. G. Warren for the association.

The main object aimed at was to create fun for the members of the audience, which E. R. Jones, president of the Five Thousand Club, helped along by permitting himself to be won over by each speaker in turn.

Mr. Booth referred to the part the Chamber of Commerce had played in the moral development of the city and of the beautiful valleys contiguous thereto. He declared that the great increase in real estate values in the valley, due to the growth of the organization, made it possible for the Y.M.C.A. to secure its present magnificent building, and that if it had not been for the activity of the Chamber of Commerce Los Angeles would still be the little tidy town it was when that body was organized.

Mr. Pratt, the first speaker for the Y.M.C.A., made a strong point when he declared that "the Chamber of Commerce makes things but we make them." He built character; and Mr. Stewart, in his defense, said the faces of future presidents of the Chamber of Commerce—"this is where we make them."

Stewart "came back" with the statement that the Y.M.C.A. is a part of the Chamber of Commerce.

"I would call your attention to the fact that the members of the Chamber of Commerce are all members of the Chamber of Commerce; that members of the Chamber of Commerce furnished the money to erect this building, and the members of the Chamber of Commerce are the fathers of the young men you are training up to be Christian gentlemen."

Pratt, upon the part of the Chamber of Commerce, has played in the building of the San Pedro waterfront and in inaugurating the work on the San Pedro Aqueduct. This caused Chairman Jones to "take another tumble."

"Of course I didn't know they had built the San Pedro breakwater and had no time to go down and arrange for the Pacific Ocean to be out here—but they have."

Mr. Warren said the Chamber of Commerce had noted that the United States was its excessive modesty, and he was surprised that so few claims had been made for it in the past.

He agreed that the keen point in being that where the Chamber of Commerce left off after furnishing material things, was the place where the raw material furnished."

The judges decided in favor of the Y.M.C.A. debaters, after which Assistant debaters called for the platforms to explain arrangements for further pushing the membership campaign. There is a reduction of $2500 in the budget for April 1, which will remain in force until April 15, and it is expected that on April 1 there will be 300 special workers in the field, who will quickly pass the mark. The object of the debate last night was simply to get a crowd together to talk over the campaign, and at the same time give them an hour's entertainment.

PICKING HIS COMMISSIONS.
WHO?

RATHER HAVE MONEY.
Alleged Thief Arrested, But Victim
May Lose Sum Intended for Property Payment.

Fred Wilcox, wanted by local police on the charge of entering the apartments of C. E. Rich, No. 419 South Hope street, last Saturday, and taking $200 in money, was arrested yesterday in San Diego, from information furnished by local officials. Detective McNamara left for San Diego last night to bring the prisoner to Los Angeles for trial.

Rich, who is a race-track follower, was seen to enter the Rich apartments last Saturday. A few minutes later Mr. Rich missed $200 from his safe, which had been duffed and hung in one of the rooms.

The loss of the money to the Riches is kept as it was intended as the last payment on property in Chicago, which will be lost to them if the payment is made on a certain date.

If the last money

possessed by Mr. Rich, who is here with his wife, is an invalid.

Antigua With Six Hundred Feet Depth of Working Acquired from Philadelphia Capitalist—Mill Goes With It—Property Rich and Has Wealth on Dump.

Lester P. Scott of the Clark Copper Company leaves today for Allona, where the company has just acquired from the Alamos Silver and Copper Mining Company, a Philadelphia concern, a rich mine of the Spanish Antigua class, which will be developed at once. Percy Barber, the engineer who will be in charge, will actually start work on the various parts of the mine, and fire, gardening, etc., but that he has not arrived yet.

The new Mayor probably will take the oath of office tomorrow, though he may delay in the convening of the Council, as the new Mayor-elect states he gives much thought to the question of filling the places on the various committees of police and fire, particularly because of his family.

He will be waiting at the City Hall steps for Mr. Alexander to assume the reins of government.

It is believed no committee will be organized until the new Mayor-elect
is in office, and the absolute result may not be known until Thursday.

LOOKS FOR DELAY.

Through his long experience as a survivor, the Mayor-elect thinks there may be a number of irregularities in the new administration, not affecting the revenue, but causing a delay in the issue of the official documents.

Stephen's ready to relinquish the office at any time.

Should the canvass of the vote be completed
today, he will be waiting at the City Hall steps for Mr. Alexander to assume the reins of government.

It is believed no committee will be organized until the new Mayor-elect
is in office, and the absolute result may not be known organized at Goldfield to drill on wildcat land near Indian Springs, on the Lyon and Tonopah Railroad, west of Las Vegas, Nev., and a branch of the Southern Pacific.

The company's president is Frank Stephens, who is also president of the Tonopah and Tidewater, which is to be merged with the Clark.

It is understood that the Tacoa company will acquire the mine, and that soon or later will come through the report that the smelter deal was off.

SOME ARE OUT OF IT.

"I have given much thought in the last few days to the matter of membership on the various commissions," said Mayor-elect Alexander yesterday.

"I have not yet arrived at any conclusion, but I am positive by the name that have been mentioned publicly in the last few days have not been considered seriously."

Artistically, though, Mr. Alexander states that he has heard the names of Messrs. Bartlett and Graham mentioned in public, which leads to the conclusion that he is considering them for membership in the Police Commission.

At stated, however, Mr. Graham declines to be considered.

A new Police Commission undoubtly means a new Chief of Police.

It is setted that Broadhead is to be appointed.

One man who is mentioned promi-nently as the future head of the police is the new Sheriff, W. E. Dushan, District Attorney's department of criminal identification. E.
F. Dushan, Under Sheriff, also has been urged for the place, but he has not yet decided.

Another Chilien mill and additional filters will be put in besides a number
of minor improvements.

Congress October Eleventh.

October 11 is the date definitely fixed for the meeting of the American Mining Congress at Goldfield instead of the 23rd of the same month.

The lead producers of Nevada, Idaho and Utah, who form the Western Ore Purchasing Association, are affiliating with the Congress as a body. The matter has been referred to an executive committee at a meeting held at St. Louis City on the 11th of the month, the meeting of protest was framed against the removal of the duty on lead.

The first question must be answered by the prosecuting attorney, and the burden of the police officer.

The question as to whether I would care to undertake the duties of that office, no real consideration more than the fact that I do not believe police force
can be effective without the support
of two factors, one, officers who are familiar with the law, and, second,
what is the fair view of the construction of the law, and, second, what is the fair view of the law.

NOT HAD AN OFFER.

In speaking of the matter yesterday, Browne said:

"I have not been offered the position.
I do not know that such an offer will ever be made.

If the place is offered to me, there will be time enough to determine whether I would care to undertake the duties of that office. No real
consideration more than the fact
that I do not believe police force
can be effective without the support
of two factors, one, officers who are
familiar with the law, and, second,

Nearly a Million Refused.

C. F. Collins, St. Louis capitalist, has offered $1,000 cash for the Alamo and Lucky Fox claims in the new Hawthorne silver-lead districts, Nevada, owned by John Miller of Hawthorne, who accepted it.

It is understood that Mr. Alexander
is to be merged with the Clark.

The Southern Pacific is to relay the track to Hawthorne that was taken up when the present cut-off was built, so it is reported from Nevada.

Shoshone's Big Tonnage.

The tonnage of the Montgomery-Shoshone at Rhyolite for March will be the heaviest for any month in the mine's history, or 600 tons.

The Shoshone, which was shipped amounting to 15,000 ounces.

The showing is increasing with depth,

according to the management. There is to be about one ton per day above the 200 foot level, and the management busy a year. Below that point there is very little being done.

Another Chilean mill and additional filters will be put in besides a number
of minor improvements.

again by invasion India is today the home of different peoples, with as many different languages and hatreds. British rule has at last been accepted by Hindus, Sikhs, Jains, Buddhists, Parsees, and Moslems have been compelled to submit to it and to keep the peace for the sake of the country. But for the stern rule of the alien power, which long ago have sunk into the welfare of the people from which that rule alone has saved the best of her people know and admit the fact.

worthy that the revolutionary movement has gained the support of hardly a single person of questionable standing. In its lower ranks it has been signalized by assassination and by acts of violence usually associated with communism, while its best representatives are student class, whose youthful minds are swayed by the precepts of Tom Paine, of Rousseau, by the incitements of modern Socialism, and in enlisting the aid of representative agitation has arrayed them in denunciatory language. Thus we find the Maharajahs, perhaps the most prominent of the new leaders to write to the public press to point out that this new self-government meant to be the 600th State coordinate to the existing, making each State friend or foe with each other, and India once again on the verge of warfare from which it was luckily only advent of the British power?

The public should know that the India will not brook such nonsense as the Mohammedans seem no less resolved to than evolution of India to proceed in inevitable lines. Mr. Syed Amrullah, India Muslim League, representing of Mohammedans, said recently in a speech:

"Speaker, Deas Brumwell of the Belasco company, in former days went East and immediately became a player of note, may return to this organization next month."

Robert Shuter will close at the Belasco Theater in two weeks. He is contemplating a vaudeville tour, with his wife.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

A legal probability will be concluded after the trials of Fischer's Theodor. Fischer E. A. Fischer, who conducted his burlesque house on First Street for several years, stated last evening that a transfer was pending, but that no transaction had been carried through as yet. The prospective purchasers are said to be Meers, Smith and Warren, owners of the land which Fischer leased when his little theater was erected.

Fischer may go in business here, or may go to San Francisco. He has been considering for some time a place at Main and Spring Streets, but he stated last evening that he was no longer holding it as a possibility.

The People's Theater, however, has in his opinion, no future, and that is not the North he may take up his expensively-furnished institution over here.

Speaker: Deas Brumwell of the Belasco company, in former days when he went East and immediately became a player of note, may return to this organization next month.

ORIGINAL VIEWS ON IMMIGRATION

LOS ANGELES DOCTOR OFFERS SOLUTION OF PROBLEM.

Suggests Establishment of State Boards to Which Employers Should Report Number of Men for Whom Work Waits and Nationality Determined—Probation System Urged.

Regulation of immigration by State boards, under a national head, these boards to be advised by employers of labor throughout their sections as to the number of immigrants if any work is given out. The suggestion made by Dr. Franklin K. Dabney of Los Angeles, the author of a pamphlet on the subject.

Dr. Dabney, who has given the matter of immigration much study, advanced interesting and original views on the subject yesterday. He regards us as an authority and represented Colorado at the National Civic Federation in New York a few years ago.

"It is the criminal and incompetent of all nations that we hate to fear in the United States," said the doctor. "In the West, and especially in California, we are contending with a flood of Asiatic immigrants. If we attempt to shut the Japanese out they must be treated as one of the most favored nations."

"My remedy for this would be the creation of State boards of immigration, directly representing a national head. Each nationality is best fitted for some particular field of industry. For instance, Germans, Italians, Belgians do well in the agricultural section in the mines. Slavs and the natives of Cornwall are found most desirable, in the factories and mines. Chinese do well in the factories, and so on. Immigrants of any other nationality, just so many would be allowed to enter the State, and not more than thousand. If the State needed no immigrants, no need of a given nationality, the central bureau would be notified accordingly, and no Italian, French, Chinese or French would be unloaded. In that way the American would not be crowded out, and there would be no violation of treaty rights, as all nations would be treated equally."

"I would suggest that any employer of labor notify the State board of immigration directly representing a national head, that he could employ from all over the various States and forwarded to the national bureau. If one had room for twenty Russians, Japanese or immigrants of any other nationality, just so many would be allowed to enter the State, and not more than thousand. If the State needed no immigrants, no need of a given nationality, the central bureau would be notified accordingly, and no Italian, French, Chinese or French would be unloaded. In that way the American would not be crowded out, and there would be no violation of treaty rights, as all nations would be treated equally."

"I would suggest that these boards be made elective, so that they would not be under obligation to any clique or faction, but would represent all the people. They should be non-political, if possible."

"In my opinion, the laws should require each and every immigrant to have a certain character before entering the United States in his native land, this character to be attested by the proper authorities of his own country. I should have a fine bill which not less than $5 should be paid by him for the maintenance of the immigration service. In addition to the fine, he should be required to show he can obtain the privilege of citizenship in the United States, I would put him under ten years of probation during which, if found defective, he may be deported."

Dr. Dabney, when it was suggested to him that his plan of furnishing workmen to employers might be construed as in violation of the alien labor laws, said he does not think so, as the State boards would have the authority to do immunitiess to any section in their jurisdiction.

DEATH OF A VETERAN.

Capt. Charles M. Schofield died at Pasadena on June 2, 1896, was a prisoner for three months at Fort McDowell and was an exceptionally brave officering a gallant soldier.

He was born in Washington county, O., in 1848, and enlisted June 29, 1861. After serving for three years in the regular army, he was transferred to the Twenty-third Ohio Volunteers July 1, 1864. He was captured on the celebrated "Lynch Ranch" on June 2, 1864, was a prisoner for three months at Fort McDowell, discharged May 25, 1865. Later he served the State of Ohio in a civil capacity at Columbus for many years. He was a member of the grand militia, his comrades in the army, and his acquaintances in civil life. Upon the occasion of his death the flag on the Capitol was placed at half-staff in honor of his memory.

The "Montgomery Guards," the chancery gang, "re doing excellent work in beautifying city property. Many trees and shrubs have been set out in the park and the gang is now improving the premises of the new municipal fire pumping plant.

Several prisoners have refused to join the "guards," but a day or two on the part of the guards to demonstrate their aversion to manual labor.

MASS MEETING OF GROWERS.

In order that an expression of opinion of growers may be obtained, the Chamber of Commerce has called a mass meeting of Kings county raisin growers for Monday afternoon, when "California Raisin Day" will be discussed.

The Fresno chamber has asked the cooperation of the local growers and has informed the raisin men raised here to refuse the expense of the expensive advertising campaign.

The grand jury adjourned Thursday afternoon, until April 29. The various committees have been appointed and the books of the county officers examined. No report will be made until the body reconvenes. No indication was given for the adjournment.

The local Odd Fellows' lodges greeted Grand Master Baker, Tuesday evening and the session was a memorable one.

The Grand Master has created the position of vice chief by consolidating several minor offices. The salary will be $100 a month.

"It would suggest that these boards be made elective, so that they would not be under obligation to any clique or faction, but would represent all the people. They should be non-political, if possible."

"In my opinion, the laws should require each and every immigrant to have a certain character before entering the United States in his native land, this character to be attested by the proper authorities of his own country. In addition to the fine, he should be required to show he can obtain the privilege of citizenship in the United States, I would put him under ten years of probation during which, if found defective, he may be deported."

The project will open on June 1. It is the intention to run it six months in every year.

PASADENA. EARLEY REPLIES TO WATERHOUSE.

TAKES UP QUESTION OF COST OF ADMINISTRATION.

Asks Electors to Back Him Up by Giving Him Majority in Council. Young Man Confesses to Uttering Twenty-five Worthless Checks. Blame Race Track for Ruin.

Office of The Times, No. 5 E. Raymond Ave. PASADENA, March 29.—The initial meeting of the Earley party was held last evening at No. 1237 North Fair Oaks avenue. Mayor Earley was the principal speaker. Others were Frank S. Wallace and Councilmanic candidates. Mayor Earley spoke thus:

"In a political contest there are a great many things said and done that would not be considered for one moment in a court of law."

"When I ran for Mayor before, the opposition started the Roadrunner after me, but it did not catch me, and felt so badly that it died a natural political death. The mourners are still on earth, and they have started the Challenger on my trail. The owners are not very sure whether it will live or die after election, and as they seem destined to live, it is their desire to bury it now. I will do my best to get the celebrated Robert Burdette to preach its funeral sermon, and in that way there would be more good things said about it than if it outlived its natural political life, which we believe is April 5."

The Challenger has made statements that it is costing the city more under this administration than under Mr. Waterhouse's. I will agree with it and let you be the judge of expenditures.

GOOD VALUE FOR MONEY.

"In the first place, under this administration East Pasadena was annexed to our territory. We have spent over $10,000 in permanent conduits across our streets, as per the plan adopted by this administration for the storm-water drains. We added four firemen, nine men and seven horses to the Dakota-street fire engine-house, and three men and two horses to the Mentor-street fire engine-house, also a branch library branch to North Pasadena. We have given out a larger number of streetcars than ever before, and we have kept our streets cleaner and freer from dirt than any time in the history of Pasadena. We have given our city twice as much light as it ever had before."

The Challenger also states that the valuation has been crowded up by leaps and bounds, and quotes the following:

"In the fiscal year 1905-6, the assessed valuation was $10,000,000; in 1906-7, $12,200,000; in 1907-8, $20,122,000, and states that this is 'mil in the coconut,' then asks the taxpayers: 'How do you like it? are you going to stand it?'

MILK IN THE COCONUT."

"Now, gentlemen, let us analyze the statement and see if I am to be blamed for the mil in the coconut."

"I never want to put on to another man's shoulders what I am responsible for. Mr. Waterhouse went into office May 1, 1906. The Vedder administration commenced the work for the fiscal year 1906-7, the first Monday in March, and it was about completed when Mr. Waterhouse took his seat. The year Mr. Waterhouse's administration had fallen into control; that is, for the fiscal year 1906-7. It made the assessment $29,230,765, but that is not quite as bad as it looks on the face of it, because Pasadena with a valuation of $12,680,825 was added to the assessment that year. Then I came in in May, 1907, and the assessment was about completed for the fiscal year 1907-8, and was placed at $40,123,695. I recommended some changes to the assessors for lower values on real estate. In that year East Pasadena had a valuation of $2,552,680, which added to the assessment. Then for the fiscal year 1908-9, this administration is responsible.

"I think the actual growth of our city is over $2,000,000. We made the assessment $37,452,005 for the year 1908-9. The assessor is now working on the assessment of 1909-10."

"I suppose that the Challenger left out the only year that this administration had full control.

THE ONLY DANGER.

"About the only danger to the city of high valuation is that the county may do the same thing and cause us to pay more than our just proportion of our county and State taxes; but our citizens are not taxed, and the county does not pay any attention to the city assessment, and the county assessment now is $10,000,000 less than the city."

"On the first year of this administration, we decided that we could make the rate 50 cents on each $100 assessed valuation, but we know it will cost more to run the city, there will be more people to pay the assessments, and your taxes should be less than in previous years. That is why one of you who are here tonight to look at your tax receipts, and see if you are not paying less in place of more, which is the best evidence the taxpayer can have."

THE FIFTH WARD.

"Under the opposition is trying to make the Fifth Ward believe that it has not received just treatment under this administration. I know your streets were in worse condition when we took office than any other part of the city. I have asked the Street Superintendent to give me a list of the streets in the Fifth Ward which have been plowed and graded by the city during the administration without any expense to the property owners. They are as follows: Lincoln avenue, from Salt Lake Boulevard bridge to north city limits; Montana street, from Raymond avenue to Windsor avenue; Old Fair Oaks avenue, from Dakota street to Hammond street; County road, from Old Fair Oaks to Montrose street; Washington street, from Sunset avenue to Sheldon avenue; Marano avenue, from Montana street to Dakota street; Dakota street, from El Molino avenue to Arruda Avenue; Elizabeth street, from Los Robles avenue to El Molino avenue; Wyoming street, from Linden avenue to 200 feet west of Linden avenue; Adams street, from Lincoln avenue to Gilean avenue; Crescent street, from Idaho street to Wyoming street; Westgate street, from Sunset avenue to Old Fair Oaks avenue; Hammond street, from Sunset avenue to Old Fair Oaks; and from Lincoln avenue to Atchison street, from Lake avenue to El Molino avenue; Walworth avenue, from Elizabeth street to High street; Bell street, from Flower to Woodbury road; Highland street, from Los Robles avenue to Santa Rosa avenue; Summit avenue, from Montana street to Tremont Avenue; and from Bell street to Flower avenue to Marengo avenue; Flower street, from Marengo avenue to Garfield avenue; El Molino avenue, from Woodbury road, from Los Robles avenue east to Santa Rosa avenue.

"That is more than twice as much work as any other ward in the city has done, but we have done more, your streets needed it more, and any Mayor who would work against any part of the city because the people in that territory are poor, is not worthy to be Mayor of our city."

MORE FOR SCHOOL.

"Now, another thing that the Challenger can show is that this administration is spending thousands of dollars more for school purposes than the Waterhouse administration did, because we have added several new schoolhouses to our city in the last two years, and we are in favor of paying the taxes of teachers and other employees of the city, a reasonable salary for their services."

"In conclusion, I want to say, for the best interests of Pasadena, a Mayor should have a Council that would not block or impede municipal affairs, and he can work better for his city if they approve of his manner of conducting the city's business."

Peter DeGrazia, Los Angeles horse-trader, had twenty horses escape from a corral near Tournament Park Sunday night. The animals scattered all over the city, and were captured by police.

It is the opinion of City Attorney Wood that the Edison Electric Company will bring suit against further efforts to improve the streets of the plane of Pasadena. Wood has just returned from Washington, where he represented the city in the legal conference.

The regular monthly meeting of the Realty Board has been set for Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the Green City Auditorium. Kellogg will take the chair.

GREAT DANE FEELS PAIN.

Hair-Cutter Who Raises Hares Catches Dog in Trap for Bears.

SIERRA MADRE, March 29.—Louis Leopards is a barber. Besides taking hair from citizens, he raises Belgian hares. The latter stock diminished mysteriously, so when he had swept up the hairs in his shop, Louis watched the hares in his yard. Whenever Louis' vigil relaxed a hare or two would disappear and Louis' hair would get grayer.

A great light came to him one day, as to St. Paul. For the taker of his hares he would set a trap for bears. Last night a howling near his hares made Louis' hair stand on end.

RACE TRACK RUINATION.

John F. Warhane, a well-known young man, 24 years old, and claiming he has brother and sisters at No. 64 North Pine avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana, is held in the City Jail charged with passing twenty-seven fictitious checks.

He has made a clean breast of his criminal work in Pasadena and Los Angeles, and maintains that playing the races at Arcadia is the indirect cause of his present trouble.

He claims to have come to Los Angeles from Salt Lake City. Prior to leaving Salt Lake he worked for a shoe firm in Denver, he says. He has confessed to Mrs. Leo D. Stewart, Mrs. Edward G. McSwain and Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. McSwain and his wife, the Pennsylvania friends of the hostess, and the guests present. During the evening Rev. and Mrs. Charles F. Richardson, Dr. and Mrs. John E.
